

Our students learn English fast because the American Language Center uses spoken English as the quickest way to learn grammar, from beginning courses to the intermediate level .

Our students spend 210 class hours using text books written by the American Language Center and not available in other language centers.

The American Language Center has been one of the most well-known centers for learning English since 1955.

---