

Facebook is a great way to stay in touch with other students as well as practicing your written English.

Stay up to date with the latest happenings at the American Language Center by liking American Language Center Beirut on Facebook

.