

As well as class based courses the American Language Center in Beirut offers one-to-one and private tutoring to its students.

Working closely with one of the American Language Center's qualified English as a second language teachers we can fast track your education or provide additional support to make sure you achieve the qualification you are aiming for.

One to one or private tutoring can be as flexible as you need it to be. Our teachers can work with you at our campus in Hamra, at your office or offer the flexibility of studying in your own home.
